

Loud are the bells

Quelle: Dancing Circles, Glastonbury, Somerset England

The musical notation consists of three staves of music in common time (indicated by a '4'). The first staff starts with a C, followed by an A. The lyrics are: Loud are the bells of Nor-wich and the peo - ple come and go here by the. The second staff starts with an A, followed by a D. The lyrics are: tower of Ju - li a - ni till them what I know. The third staff starts with a G, followed by a Dm. The lyrics are: Ring out the bells of Norwich and C F G C. The fourth staff continues with a C, followed by a G. The lyrics are: let the win - ter come and go all shall be well a - gain I know.

C a

Loud are the bells of Nor-wich and the peo - ple come and go here by the tower of Ju - li a - ni till them what I know. Ring out the bells of Norwich and let the win - ter come and go all shall be well a - gain I know.

a d C e G F C

G Dm C G D G C C F G C